FINANCE COMMITTEE AND LIQUOR LICENSES

Again yesterday, for the second time within less than a week, the Finance Committee held a lengthy session in an Committee hold a lengthy session in an effort to reach a final report on liquor licenses. The meeting was behind closed doors, and so far as could be ascertained last night the report was not formulated and another gathering will be held later in the week.

Under the compromise of the high license ordinance, which was effocted last year, the three hundred and odd saloons will be licensed on a graduated scale, three classes having been created. The lowest is $100 per annum and the highest 1750.

Father Magri was speaking from the text, "Those who are not with me are against me," and he went on to indicate the classes of people who were "against" Christ. After speaking of atheists, theoretical and practical, anarchists and iso on, he came down to Roman Catholies themselves, and declared that there were those inside the Church who were doing it the greatest harm. Evils from the outside, he said, can be guarded against, but when the foe is in the fold liself, then is his work the more deadly. Indifferent Catholies, who did not come to church, who wouldn't hold up for their religion, who falled to perform the duttes prescribed by the church, were doing more to lajure that church than any atheists or unbelievers on the outside.

In closing Father Magri expressed the hope and the belief that, despite the indifferent ones, the Church would continue to go on triumphant to the end.

Legitimately Lost.

NEW YORK, March 16.-Whitaker Wright, arrested yesterday at the request of the London authorities, was taken to the Federal building to-day to be arraigned before United States Commission er Alexander. Miss Florence Browne, his nieco, who arrived with him, and who disappeared from the Albemarlo Hotel later in the day, went to the office of United States Marshal Henkel with her counsel. She was not a prisoner. Miss Browne said sho was the niece of Whitaker Wright, but knew nothing about his licancial affairs, On his way to the Federal uniding Wright made a statement, in which the said:

Wright made a statement, in which ale said:

"I shall walve all extradition formalities to go back to England as soon as the government matures all arrangements.
"This story about the amount of money lost is all bosh," he said. "The amount lost altogether did not exceed four million pounds. The Globe Company to-day would be on its feet had it not been for the sub-way, the under-ground road in London, but, unfortunately, in an unwise moment, the Globe became interested in this and the crash came. The money was legitimately lost. This occurred two years ago. I went over the books carefully myself with the receiver, and the matter was laid in all its entirety before Parliament.

Wright was arraigned before United States Commissioner Alexander and the hearing was adjourned until Wednesday. The formal complaint against Wright charges him with fraud in publishing folies statements in connection with the London and Globe corporation.

CLAIMS PROTECTION IN VERY HIGH CIRCLES

The new system has a great many friends not only in the Legislature, but among the lawyers and business men all over the State, and it has been endorsed by the State Bar Association at a recent session.

Mr. Eugene C. Massic, a prominent lawyer of this city, has been very active for several years in behalf of inaugurating the new system in Virginia, and he will no doubt strongly urga the bill before the committee. (By Associated Press.)
LONDON, March 16.—John Flower, who insignated the prosecution of Whitaker Wright, the president of the London and Globe corporation, who was arrosted yesterday in New York on his arrival from France, said:

Globe corporation, who was arrivated year terday in New York on his arrival from France, said:

"I see Wright is quoted as saying he has a powerful protector in royal circles. That is the keynote to the difficulties. It is also stated that Wright had in his possession letters from leading members of the royal families, showing that they were interested in his transactions. We have no documentary proof of this. Wright himself is probably the only man in the world who could prove it. If he has such letters they ought now to be in the possession of the New York police, as we suppose they searched his effects, and Wright is not likely to let such a powerful weapon of defense out of his personal possession, when within a few weeks the chief issue in the Wright case will be the complicity or otherwise of the exalted personages in the empire in Wright's financial and other scheines. We do not anticipate any difficulty in extradition, but if Wright's statement turns out to be true his prosecution will become committee on a suitable memorial to the nurse who died at the hospital with the smallpox, reported progress, studing that several bids and specifications had been examined.
